the pleasure to announce

"STUPID CONDUCT" RUN ON OMNIBUSES.

MAGISTRATE PUZZLED BY FRE
MAN'S "FOOLISHNESS."

Described as a company director, Gordon Hurry, 30, of Upper Bedford-place, W.C., was charged on remand at Westminster to-day "as a suspected person loitering at Victoria Station Yard and Wilton-road for an unlawful purpose."

On three successive evenings last week, it was stated, Hurry was seen to await the arrival of omnibuses at Victoria, and before the passengers had alighted he pushed his way among them and mounted the stairs. At the top, however, he immediately turned and came down again.

On one evening he was seen to board ten buses, and his conduct attracted attention. A constable kept watch, and eventually arrested him.

Mr. Francis (magistrate): I am not

THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT

The Duke of Connaught inspecting a guard of honour at St. James's Palace to-day, when he also in surprised he was arrested. What is the result of the enquiry?

Studied Medicine.

Det. Cade said Hurry was a man of excellent character. For two years before the war he studied medicine at Cambridge. From 1914 to 1918 he served as an officer in the Gloucester Regiment. Then he went to St. Bartholomew's Hospital, where he remained until last year. Now he was connected with an overseas advertising journal.

Mr. Francis (to counsel): I am tempted to ask, in common parlance:

"What's his game?"
Mr. Powell (defending) said Hurry was looking for a friend who had arranged to meet him at Victoria, on his return from the Oval. He made no complaint because he was arrested. The bus inspector had admitted that he saw nothing suspicious about his behaviour, and he did not touch anyone.

"Mere Foolishness."

It was extraordinary behaviour, as Hurry himself admitted, but, after all, mere foolishness. It was inconceivable that a man in Hurry's position would be loitering for a felonious purpose.

Mr. Francis: "I never had the slightest intention of convicting him for being there with the purpose of committing a felony. But I still ask—what on earth was he doing on these omnibuses?"

"There must be some better reason than that supplied by the ingenuity of his counsel that he was waiting for a friend. What he was there for rests in his own mind better than mine."

"However, there is not sufficient evidence for me to convict him, and I shall order his discharge. He has only his own stupid conduct to blame for being here."
