The Library
Guy's Hospital.
29. iv. 33.

Thank you for the three volumes of your Reports, which complete our set.
I am always very pleased to get gaps filled up. I understand from Prof.
Johnston's secretary that she is in communication with you about the exchanges.

Yours sincerely,

A. Andrews.

MYTHS AND LEGENDS OF CHINA

Size 9 1/2 x 7 inches. 456 pages, with 2 plates in colour by native artists. Cloth, gilt top, 25/- net.

HARRAP, LONDON: October 1922

No.
Costenford.

Revised

Revised.

The author has lived more than thirty years in China. He states in his preface: "My aim, after summarizing the sociology of the Chinese as a pre-requisite to the understanding of their ideas and sentiments, and dealing as fully as possible, consistent with limitations of space, with the philosophy of the subject, has been to set forth in English those myths which may be regarded as the accredited representatives of Chinese mythology—those which live in the minds of the people and are referred to most frequently in their literature, not those which are merely diverting without being typical or instructive—in short, a true, not a distorted image."

This is, so far as I know, the only monograph on Chinese mythology in any non-Chinese language. Nor do the native works include any scientific analysis or philosophical treatment of their myths."
